

KING PHILIP WALPOLE YOUTH HOCKEY BOYS & GIRLS INTRODUCTORY HOCKEY PROGRAMS

Begins
Oct. 13

Instructional

For boys and girls born in 2013 or before who have experience ice skating and are interested in learning to play ice hockey. The KPWH Instructional Program runs Saturday and Sunday mornings at the Foxboro Sports Center, taking players new to hockey and teaching them the basics of skating, shooting, passing and other hockey skills.
Cost: $499

8U Development

The first step for players who have completed an instructional hockey program, focusing on skills development, small-area games and an understanding and love for ice hockey, while competing in our 8U house league which includes a 22-game schedule on age-appropriate ice. Practices are held Friday and Sunday, with games Saturday afternoon.
Cost: $1199

Girls In-House

A convenient and cost-effective opportunity for young female athletes born between 2006-2012 to try ice hockey in an all-girls environment. Similar to the 8U Development Program, the Girls In-house Program focuses on skills development and hockey knowledge, before introducing age-appropriate games later in the season.
Cost: $849
